Griffmen Lose Opening Clash in Cleveland Through Inability to Hit Collamore.

GREAT PITCHERS' BATTLE

Errors Behind Walter and Scratch Hits Turn in Victory for the Indians.

By CHARLES W. SWAN, Of the Sporting Department, Cleveland

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 18.—Walter John-son put across one of his best games against the Indians today, but his best was not good enough, and Fohl's men won a brilliant 2-to-0 pitchers' battle. Johnson allowed only five hits, four of which were of the scratch variety. Walter passed only two men and fan ned twelve Indians in the eight innings FABER TO RESCUE: they batted, but still that was not enough. For Johnson was opposed by Al Collamore, who as a Nap always had omething on the Washington team. Today was no exception. Breaking back into the American League, the Toledo boy was asked to tackle the toughest assignment one could imagine, for he was sent in against the speed king, and he did his part of the work
